

Introduction

Tarik 3333 is an innovative project, a combination of stories and drawings that come to life from the work of the artists and build their future thanks to the community united in values, choices and interactions. It is a project developed in phases specifically agreed upon to excite customers and guarantee them a valuable and above all... Galactic product!

It all started 4 months ago, when with the other 2 founders we wanted to enter the metaverse but creating our universe, our star wars.

There we involved a very dear friend of mine, a cyber punk illustrator, and the journey began. He brought in 3 other illustrators, after 2 weeks entered a gaming entrepreneur and his team of discord of 4 people. The same week 3 Italian women writers entered the project and the project started there.

The TARIK solar system consists of a star and 4 planets with 4 races of androids that are involved in a war against an unknown enemy.

We have 4 main character to mint, one for each planet. With a LORE very structured. LSEP

A compelling story about our Solar System TARIK and P2E game

The Tarik solar system is composed by of 4 planets that coexist peacefully since immemorial time:

Taplos is the core of technological innovation where resides the highest leadership of the Central State;

Branzos is the main headquarters of the State Central Troops and supplies Tarik with the greatest warriors;

Veenus is the planet of diplomacy, ensures peace and coordinates trade relations between the various planets;

Ienos is the main mineral wealth, it provides subsistence and supply of coal and precious metals.

Suddenly the peace is undermined by a message from an unknown entity that foretells the beginning of an unprecedented war against the entire Tarik unless they surrender to the new and unknown megapower.

Tarik is on his knees: it is necessary to create a team that involves the four elements identified in the writings of the ancients sages: loyalty, courage, intellect and tenacity. Four people who as humans have an innate desire to live will be identified and converted into androids without the slightest fear of dying...

We have story and games designed until Q4 2022.

Not to much spoiler for the moment.

3 phase of the war, each one will have a game P2E.
